Unit Project

Name: _____
Hour: _____ Date: _____

It will be your job to create a t-chart comparing exploration in the Americas to globalization today. Within your chart you should have the following:

- Exploration Differences should have 5 facts that make exploration in the Americas unique from globalization
- Globalization Differences should have 5 news stories covering the concept of globalization, the information in these stories should make globalization unique from exploration.
- At the bottom of the t-chart under Similarities, you should identify 5 common threads between exploration of the Americas and globalization today.
- Beneath your t-chart you need to write one paragraph (5 COMPLETE SENTENCES) responding to the following question, “Is globalization helpful for America?”. In the paragraph you should define globalization IN YOUR OWN WORDS and use at least 3 examples taken from your t-chart to strengthen your argument.
- You may use a web-poster, Microsoft Word, or construction paper to create your t-chart. If you have NEAT, LEGIBLE handwriting you may write in your t-chart by hand. Your paragraph should be TYPED. Do NOT use the space below to complete this assignment; this was constructed to give you an example of what your project should look like.
